- The Spiritual Discipline: Practice Generosity
At the conclusion of the book, Nathan Harris writes this: "As we give, we get to be living examples of what Christ has done in our lives. Giving, above all else, is about the testimony of the gospel."
  - Pray about who God has put in your life (not an immediate family member) and that God will have you bless generously this December. *If possible, do it anonymously because the heart behind Gospel generosity is not to receive recognition or praise.
    - It could be a financial/monetary gift
    - It could be sacrificing your time and talent to share with someone in need
- Man Date - Schedule a one-on-one Man Date with one of the guys in your group for a time to get to know each other more and to talk about things that are going on in each other's lives.
- Book Review- Prepare notes to share with your group. Your notes should include the following:
  - List your key takeaways.
  - Discuss how you will apply it to your life now
  - Bring your takeaways and application points to your monthly meeting.
- Group Meeting - Your group will meet each month for accountability and to deepen your relationship with one another. You will come prepared to discuss the book, review Scripture memory, and share reflections from journaling, your man-date, and your spiritual discipline.
