A NOTE FROM PASTOR BRUCE

For “everyone who calls on the Lord will be saved.” How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in Him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!” Romans 10:13-15

Thank you for considering a short-term mission trip with Biltmore Church! This is more than an opportunity to visit a new place. It’s an opportunity to participate in something much bigger than yourself. From the very beginning to the last few pages of Scripture, and throughout human history, God accomplishes His mission by sending people who do know Him to people who don’t know Him.

The reality is, in our community and around the world, there are people who don’t know, and have no access to the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ. This is why Biltmore Church embraces the mission. We exist to glorify God by making disciples of Jesus who reach up, reach in, and reach out. We have been saved out of our sin, into a family, and onto a mission. We go, not because God needs our help, but because He delights in inviting His children into his mission to reach the world with the gospel.

God is at work around the world and we want to send the people of Biltmore Church out to be a part of what He is doing. We take mission trips each year to encourage our partners, engage in the work they’re doing, and disciple our people to have a heart for the nations. I’m praying that God uses this trip to stir your heart up for His mission here in Western North Carolina and around the world.

Vision

Join us as we have the unique opportunity to serve our local communities by partnering alongside NC Baptist and Baptist on Mission.

We believe that one day, people from every tribe, tongue, and nation will worship God around His throne. Western North Carolina is known for its vibrant culture and diverse communities, yet many people throughout the region still need to hear and understand the hope of the gospel. While Christianity has a presence in Western North Carolina, there is an ongoing need for discipleship, genuine faith, and a personal relationship with Jesus. Through this trip, you'll partner with local churches and ministries to share the love of Christ and encourage people to grow in their faith. Let's make Christ known throughout Asheville—for the glory of God.

- Religious Landscape: Christianity remains the dominant religious tradition in North Carolina, with approximately 35% of adults identifying as Evangelical Protestant and 7% identifying as Catholic. However, about 26% of adults identify as religiously unaffiliated, highlighting the need for continued gospel outreach and discipleship throughout the Asheville area.
- Cultural expectations: Cultural expectations in Asheville center around a strong sense of community, friendly Southern hospitality, respect for personal relationships, and an appreciation for the outdoors and local culture. While communication styles and approaches to time vary, people generally value politeness, authenticity, and a welcoming atmosphere.
- Evangelism method/strategy: Three Circles and Personal Testimony
- Sample schedule: A typical day will include breakfast and a team devotion, followed by ministry activities. Teams will pause for lunch and then continue serving. Evenings will be spent in debrief, dinner, and time to connect as a team.
- Accommodations: Teams will stay in bunk-style sleeping arrangements with gender specific cabins.

What's Expected

As a team member at Deep Impact Black Mountain, you'll serve alongside Baptists on Mission out of their Hurricane Helene rebuild center in Black Mountain. These mission teams will help families just down the road from us recover and rebuild while sharing the hope of the gospel.

- Rebuild Work - The primary focus of this week is construction and recovery work for homeowners in the Black Mountain area who are still rebuilding after Hurricane Helene. Teams head out to project sites after breakfast and a morning send-off, eat lunch on site, and serve until mid-afternoon. No construction experience is needed, just a willingness to work hard and love people well.
- Worship & Devotion - Evenings back at the Black Mountain rebuild center include dinner, a worship service, and devotions with our Biltmore group to process what God is doing in and through us.
- Maintain flexibility - Scheduled activities are subject to change due to various factors so maintaining a spirit of flexibility allows you to be open to any changes God may have for your team.
- Care - Serving on a short-term mission trip is a great way to serve and care for our long-term missionaries and mission partners.
- Show Up - Be present for all pre-trip and post-trip meetings as well as all in-country activities. We want you to make the most of your time as you engage the nations with the hope of the Gospel.

PROCESS FOR GOING

The process for going. Here's every step of the journey from I'm interested to going and serving!

1. INFO MEETING

- Curious about going? Start here. Come to your campus mission trip info meeting with your family to hear the heart behind why we go, see the trips assigned to your campus, and get your questions answered. Parents are required to attend! This first step is for them and you!

2. APPLY

- God is nudging you to go - now what? Fill out the Student Mission Trip Application. We place a high value on our students and these trips, and we want to make sure this is the right trip for you. Your parent/guardian will sign the application alongside you.

3. INTERVIEW

- This is one of our favorite parts! Your Campus Student Director will coordinate a time to meet with you and your parent(s) to hear your story, why you want to go, and what God is stirring in you. Then, your parent(s) will join on the back end, so we can cast vision together and answer any immediate questions. All students are required to apply and interview.
- A word on the interview: Every now and then, after we've talked and prayed together, we may sense that this particular trip or this particular season isn't the right fit or time just yet. So, you will either receive a GO or NOT YET confirmation from your Campus Student Director. If you are told NOT YET, your Campus Student Director will point you to some helpful next steps that will help prepare you for the next opportunity. Some of those may include joining a ReachTeam, joining your student Serve Team, or participating in local mission opportunities here in WNC.

4. YOU'RE IN

- Once everything is complete, we'll reach out to you and your parents with good news and confirm your spot on the team. You'll get added to the team roster, join our group communication platforms, and begin to receive specific trip details.

5. PARENT CONSENT AND FORMS

- Because you're a student, a few forms are required to keep everyone safe and well cared for. Your parent/guardian must complete a consent and medical release/liability waiver, and your family will review and acknowledge our support-raising policy together.

6. TRAIN AND PREPARE

- Before we go, your team will meet together to prepare spiritually, grow as friends, and get ready for the place you're headed. These trainings will be required and are part of your commitment.

7. RAISE SUPPORT

- Going on a mission trip is something God invites others into with you. You'll be expected to write letters and invite people to pray, give, and follow along on your journey. This not only helps challenge and stretch you, but it stirs the hearts of other followers of Jesus.

8. SENT

- You are sent. You and your team will serve our partners, share Jesus, and get a front-row seat to what God is doing among the nations.

9. BRING IT HOME

- The trip doesn't end when you're back home. We'll celebrate what God did, process it as a team, and follow up with the people who sent you. How God worked and moved continues to carry you in the seasons ahead!
